CLASS PROPHECY

In May 1962, the seniors of 1952 got together for a picnic. They reminisced school day memories and told what they were now doing. Their prophecies were as follows in 1952:

We prophesied that Peggy Heflin would be living on a potato farm near Fonda raising potatoes and kids. But we now find her in the Methodist Hospital working in the psychiatric ward.

As we wandered to the near by table we heard a familiar chuckle and as we looked to see it was none other than Don N. With him was a cute little blonde, the former Mary Goecke. By chatting with Don we soon found that he still preferred chevies and camels. Cigarettes that is !!!!!

We prophesized that Ann L. would be teaching third or fourth grade near Storm Lake, but by conferring with her we find her plans were some what changed. She is now a chorus girl in the Flamingo Club and receives gigantic tips.

The fella roasting marshmallows turned out to be the one and only-----!?!? BOB KELLY! We prophesized that Bob would be farming with his dad and brother but we now learn that he is a stock-car racer with two pitmen-----Miss Barbara Clausen and Esther Staton.

We prophesized that Elizabeth N. would be teaching in Texa. We find her in Texas, but not teaching. She is settled on a ranch with her husband, a multi-millionaire, raising 1000 chickens and drilling for oil as her past time.

We prophesized that Madge Fagan would be a receptionist for a well known doctor, Dr. Snodgrass. After talking to Madge awhile we find that she has changed her name to "Peek Aboo," the Bubble Dancer at the famous Stork Club.

After leaving we browsed around abit. Don Hass caught our attention next. We prophesized the Don would be running a big dairy farm but it seems like "Beautiful Brown Eyes" changed his mind. Incidentally "Beautiful Brown Eyes" initials are M. B.

Barb Kelley, that all around athelete was prophesized to go to Commercial Extension at Omaha, and taking Accounting. Barb has changed her mind too and now is a lion tamer for Barnum and Bailey. It seems like her part in the Senior Class Play influenced her to do something daring and exciting.

Walt Huster was prophesized to become a professor of Engineering. A certain girl has changed his mind considerable since the prophesy. Isn't that right Doris H.? I'm so glad to hear you and Walt are happy in your occupation as assistant managers of the Ford Industry Plant.

That 200 lb. fella eating lettuce turned out to be Dale Schramm. We prophesized the Dale would be a coach, but he is now driving a Semi-truck loaded with tomatoes. Thats a cute tomato he carries in the cab with him also.

We prophesized that Ann Ditsel would be teaching Home Economics. But she is now in partnership running a dog kennel---Incidentally that partner is her husband (Jack Jr.) Their specialty is Poodles. (And not hair cuts either)

Glancing toward the swimming pool we recognized the life saver as Dale Lake. We prophesized that Dale would be working in the Girls Dorm. at I.S.T.C. Some what similar to this the girl part that is---- Here come Jane Russell, Esther Williams and Ava Gardner--now just a few of the many girls in his harem.

Turning our eyes to the water and focusing our eyes to the diving board, we eyed Dorothy Hardyk, who it seems is now one of the Worlds well known Swimming champions. We had prophesized that Dorothy would be ~~teach-~~ but I guess her fancy has turned to swimming.

We prophesized that Leon would be at this time a well known accountant, but it seems that the Fertig family from Sac needed a hired man, he takes instructions from Margie, and believe it or not her instructions are carried out.

That small fella that has finally lived up to his nickname "Tiny" was now putting out the bonfire. Tiny alias Ronald Meyer is now a lightweight wrestler. We wished him luck on his next bout with Sugar Ray and went to chat with the last Sr. of 1952.

Yes, that was none other than Marlene Woehl. The gal with personality plus. We had prophesized that Marlene would attend Commercial Extension and get a job somewhere. Marlene is now personnel director for Burpees Peas Inc.

And that drew to a close a get-together with the "1952" Sr. class.

CLASS HISTORY

The school day history of the senior class of 1952 began for six members of the present senior class on the morning of September 2, 1940, when they were greeted by their teacher, Miss Lillian Halvorsen at the first grade door. Ann Ditzel, Donald Hass, Walter Huster, Barbara Kelley, Robert Kelly, and Elizabeth Nielsen were among those who entered Lytton Consolidated School that year.

The seven years that followed showed changes in the class enrollment. Those who received their diplomas at the 1948 eighth grade graduation exercises were: Ann Ditzel, Donald Hass, Peggy Heflin, Walter Huster, Barbara Kelley, Robert Kelly, Ronald Meyer, Leon Neuhring, Donald Nicholson, Marlene Woehl, and Elizabeth Nielsen.

The Freshman Class consisted of 18 members, as they had welcomed five to join them in our high school memories. They were: Frances Guill, Dorothy Hardyk, Dale Lake, Ann Linquist, and Dale Schramm.

CLASS WILL OF 1952

We, the Senior Class of Lytton High School, hereby about to be paroled after serving our full twelve years in the Lytton Cons. School, make this our last will and testimony.

Article One

To our principal and superintendent, Mr. Smith and Mr. Lashier, we leave one wheel chair, and one pair of crutches; to be given to them when their old age creeps up on them.

Article Two

To the rest of our many teachers, we leave our sincere regrets, as we know they are sorry to see us leave.

Article Three

To the student body as a whole, we leave our ver quiet, courteous, and intelligent manner for which each teacher has praised us for.

Article Four

Ann Ditzel wills her car to Vernie Hillmer and Bob Bartels. It's in a little better condition boys, and the town of Sac City to Marcelyn Ditzel.

Madge Fagan wills all her under classmen boyfriends to Joanne Wilson. You'll have to go some Joanne to keep up with Madge.

Dorothy Hardyk wills her ability to stay home four nights out of a week to Kay Heflin. Now's the time to get caught up on all the sleep you've lost, Kay.

Donald Hass wills his extra musceles to Jerry Yeazel, and all of his old girl friends, one from every town in the state, to Lenus Schramm.

Peggy Heflin wills her quiet smile to Lorraine Hillmer. It will be quite a change to smile without laying an egg each time won't it Lorraine?

Walter Huster wills his attempt of wise cracking to Bill Muesburger. Maybe, Bill, with yours and Walt's put together you'll be able to get a laugh now and then.

Barbara Kelley will her ability of racking up points in a basketball game to Arlene Siemering. Let's see you put in a few now, Arlene.

Robert Kelly wills his seat in the back of the assembly to Esther Staton. If you get lonesome back there Esther, ask Robert what he did for excitement. I'm sure he could give you several ideas.

Dale Lake wills his voice to Herman Ninneman. Don't strain your tonsils too much, Herman.

Ann Linguist wills her quietness to Ronald Helmbrecht. It sure will be quiet around school from now on won't it, kids?

Ronald Meyer wills his butch hair cut to Anne Rohlfing. You don't have too much more to cut off Anne.

Donald Nicholson wills his theme songs, "Smoke Gets In My Eyes", and "Heap Big Smoke But No Fire" to Don Dierson along with the extra surplus he has left.

Elizabeth Nielsen wills her beloved, air conditioned car to Mickey Lott. We hope this will save you the expense of buying a convertible, Mick.

Leon Nuehring wills his ability of going steady without quarreling to Don Williams. From now on let's have a few less quarrels, Don.

Dale Schramm wills Kay Hostetter to Don Schultz. Take as good care of her as Dale did Don.

Marlene Woehl will her shorthand book to Mary Ann Fagan. I hope you get something out of it, Mary Ann.

Article Five

As a class at whole we leave.

Conquering and Still to Conquer

When the years are slowly passing,
and adulthood looms before,
We grasp the hopes and dreams of youth,
and set about life's chore.

Each daily pattern's charted, each road—
is pushed into this life
That looms before us, ———this goal we're striving to.

Our hopes are high, our aim is good,
our purpose staunch and true,
And with our faith securely sown, we'll manage to struggle through.

We Seniors of '52 are leaving now, all teachers, books, and rules.
All joys, and woes, and memories that come along with schools.

We've reviewed our history, made our will,
and surmised our prophecy,
And we've left behind some hints and blessings,
for the Class of '53

So "good-bye" to Alma-Mater
"Hello" to whats in store
We're leaving now in unison,
Conquering as we go.

FOOTBALL

On the twentieth of August, Coach McKinstrey started practicing with 25 green but eager boys. There were plenty of stiff and sore muscles at the end of the first few practices, but by the time of the first game, the fellas thought they were really football players.

On the fourteenth of September, the Bulldogs played Early here. That really let the fellas know what they needed to practice on.

The scores for the year's games were as follows:

*Early-----	33	Lytton-----	0
Bode-----	7	Lytton-----	0
*Lake View-----	12	Lytton-----	0
*Galva-----	20	Lytton-----	6
Newell-----	40	Lytton-----	0
*Wall Lake-----	6	Lytton-----	14
*Schaller-----	20	Lytton-----	0

* Conference games

Two of the Bulldog players were on the first and second Bo-Coon conference teams. They were Dale Schramm and Bill Muesburger.

At the end of the season the football boys met and elected honorary co-captains. They were Dale Schramm, and Robert Kelly.

The Bulldogs lost five players at graduation. They were: Dale Schramm, Dale Lake, Don Hass, Ronald Meyer and Robert Kelly.

BOYS BASKETBALL

A look at the record will show that the Bulldogs had a rather dismal season losing 13 and only winning 6; however it must be taken into consideration that they have only one letterman leaving, seven lettermen for next year. They are as follows; Juniors: Bill Muesburger, Joe Rosenberger and Ronald Helmbrecht. Sophomores: Fred Schwartz, Dale Scharn, Don Bartels and Darwin Matter.

This includes the two high point men for the season, Bill Meusburger with 180 points and Dale Scharn with 129 points. Both of these boys are over six foot tall. The team this year averaged about 6 foot and next year will no doubt be taller.

During the half of the boys game, the captain Robert Kelly crowned Barbara Kelley as Homecoming Queen of 1951. Madge Fagan, Erma Dee Landsness, Janice Longman and Claudia Ringgenburg served as attendants. Roger Baskerville led the procession with the queen's crown. Lois Neuhring and Maureen Krohn carried the flowers. Kay Heflin played the processional.

After the game a program was held with Bob Bartels as master of ceremonies. Mary Ann Fagan, and Bill Meusburger and members of the Jr. High entertained with a record pantomime. Dale Lake and Joanne Wilson sang two selection. There was a comedy skit put on by some people of the surrounding community. After the program a dance for all was held.

Friday, September 7. At 8:00 tonight we held our annual installation in the High School. The stage was decorated very nicely with the table in the center holding a vase of flowers, the candles symbolizing the eight purposes and one from which they are all directed and the gavel being the main attraction. All the girls taking part in the event were also excited and perhaps a little nervous, too. The old and new officers are: President, retiring, Elizabeth Nielsen, and Peggy Heflin, Vice-President, Darlene Meyer, retiring, and Marcelyn Ditzel; Secretary, Peggy Heflin, retiring, and Mary Lou Everts, Treasurer, Stella Hutchinson, retiring and Carol Pals; Historian, Marjorie Yeazel, retiring and Janice Longman, Public Relations, Marlene Woehl, retiring, and Joanne Wilson; Parliamentarian, Barbara Kelley, retiring, and Ann Ditzel. Other new officers are: Wilma Jones, Project Chairman; Claudia Ringgenberg; Recreation Chairman; Elizabeth Nielsen, Student Advisor, and Mr. Huser, Advisor.

The installation was very impressive. We were glad to see that a few of our parents were able to come and get an insight into the FHA organization. The dance was fun, too. Claudia the new recreation chairman led us in entertainment. We all were completely exhausted when the clock said "time to go home".

In our meetings now we've set up projects and plans for the coming year. The purpose we've planned to follow is to foster development of creative leadership in home and family life. The thing we're really planning for now is FHA District Convention, to be held at Mallard. The degree committee has been picked. They are Barbara Kelley, Barb Wolff, Erma Landsness, and Kay Hostetter.

Thursday, October 2. Tonight we held our "new member" initiation. The committees in charge were full of surprises and antics, which made the night a huge success. After putting the new members through the ropes, we had our lunch of cider and donuts and gathered for a song fest.

Thursday, October, 25. We're all tired and content tonight. We served a banquet supper to the Calhoun County Education Association. Since it was our first undertaking of the year, there were some new things to be learned, but it seemingly ran very smoothly.

November How can it be November all ready? Well, at least the FHA is keeping up with it. Schedule is set so full steam ahead. The week of Nov. 4-10. We publicized and work for our National FHA Week. Each day of the week some measure was fulfilled. Sunday was Church Day. Monday Publicity Day, Tuesday, Community Day, Wednesday, School Day, Family on Thursday, Friday was Fun day, and Saturday, Working Day.

Tuesday November, 20. Tonight after school we held a tea for our mothers in the gym. Our faculty was also present. The main highlight was a talk by guest speaker, Rev. Gardner Winn, from Pocohantas.

Saturday, December, 12. We held our Food Sale today in Hueters Furniture Store. Gosh, everything looked delicious and did it sell!

Saturday, January, 5. Tonight was a tobaggoning party with the FFA. Some of the guys smoothed out the rough spots so the hill was in pretty good condition. The boys started a fire and every one gathered around it. After tobaggoning for awhile we gathered at the Cedar Community Hall for chili and crackers.

February 8. In our meeting today we selected our candidate for State office. We're so pleased at being asked again to select one of our girls. Our choice was Erma Dee Landsness. We found out later that Erma had been accepted by the Committee for Candidate in office of Vice-President. Carol Pals was chosen a delegate to the convention.

Saturday, February, 16. Hmmm. I still feel as though, I'm in a dream world. Tonight was our semi-formal Valentine Party. The girls all wearing big, bright stars in their eyes and maybe their very first formal, and the boys all polished and gentlemanly looking quite proud of themselves. It was a "success"!! The Queen-Elizabeth Nielsen, and the King-Dale Lake were crowned and honored and their attendants as well. We really had a royal court.

Friday, March, 14. Reports of convention were given today. We members were certainly pleased with them.

Friday March, 21. Slumber party tonight. It stormed simply terrible, but a few of us stayed any way since we had some chaperone here.

Thursday, April, 10. We had a special meeting today. We voted on adopting Mrs. Edward Scharn as Honorary Member.

Friday, April, 18. We had election of officers today. The new ones are President: Joanne Wilson; Vice-President: Claudia Ringgenberg; Secretary: Joretta Nehman; Treasurer: Marilyn Botz; Historian: Gracia Stock; Project Chairman: Anne Rohlfing; Nelda Campbell; Public Relations; and Senior Advisor: Carol Pals.

Saturday, May, 17. The FHA Chapter went to Veisha today and had a very enjoyable day.

There were two more conferences after dinner after which we returned to Lytton.

SENIOR SKIP DAY

Early Monday morning, April 28, we pointed our cars toward Omaha. Most of us were a little sleepy yet, but that didn't seem to bother us as we got started.

We stayed together all the way down and had some breakfast in Council Bluffs. From there we went on to the School for the Deaf. There we were shown through most of the school. We didn't get to visit the classes very long as that was the first day that they had had school since the flood. From there we found out where we would have a chance of seeing some of the dikes. We were directed to go north on 8th street in Council Bluffs. We went north quite a ways but we finally saw them. Going over into Omaha, we saw some sandbags in front of some of the stores in case the dikes broke north of there.

From there we went on toward Omaha. We skimmed through the Joselyn Memorial. By the time we got through there our stomachs were demanding some food. We had dinner and all of us felt better afterwards. After dinner we went to see the Union Pacific Museum. This was very interesting as it contained some historic things about the starting of the West. We went out to Boys Town from there. We were fortunate to be able to go through most of the buildings. Some of them were, the Trade School, Field House, and Chapel. We drove past the grade school and the places where those boys stay and also by the farm. After that we went back to Omaha. When we got there we decided to go to the Municipal Airport. We finally found our way out there, but were disappointed as they were still closed because of some water under the runway. After that we went to the WOW-TV and WOW radio station but we were too late to see anything in the studios.

It was getting pretty late by this time and everybody was getting tired so we all ate supper and headed for home, a tired but happy group.

CHEERLEADING REPORT

Eight students, representing each class in school and four grade teachers judged the try-outs which took place every day for a week.

From those that tried out they elected Wilma Jones, Walt Huster, Ellen Huster, Joanne Wilson and Barbara Wolff for football cheerleaders. Walt Huster, Ellen Huster, Joanne Wilson, Barbara Wolff and Anne Rolfe were cheerleaders for basketball.

For football the uniforms were gold slacks and purple jackets. During the basketball season they wore the same uniforms as last year, which were purple satin blouses trimmed with gold and a bulldog emblem on the front, flared skirts with purple and gold satin, and saddle shoes.

The usual pep meetings were held on the day of the game and the cheerleaders yelled at all basketball and football games.
